Thos. Partridge, Reeve.

There was a fair crowd at the show, on Wednesday night, when the "Musical Eckards" gave their offering of music, comedy and legerdemain. Many comments were heard on the fine appearance of the Hall, which has recently been overhauled.

BUSY BIDEFORD

The Bideford Bosses
Sat on their high horses
And grumbled, grunted and swore
"We won't be molested"
Each bold boss protested,
"We'll show the town-nuisance the door."

Of course 'twas a woman,
The only thing human
That makes all the trouble around.

Whispered each knowing boss
In a voice sour and cross,
"She's wired the police to the town!"

Every business boss groaned—
"She ought to be stoned!"
Whatever next will she do?
Gee whiz! don't she nag
This dame with the bag
And all coz a man's got the flut!"
They called up her crimes,
And spoke of the times
She had bullied a batch for a bone.

For sick Tommies or Jacks
She'd get down to brass tacks Yessir! She'd draw blood from a stone.

The Bideford Bosses
Foresaw many losses
If constables closed up the town
Each business would suffer
All coz this damned duffer
Was hustling to hold the flu down.

It came to her ears
She felt melted to tears
At the harm the folks said she had done.

"I sent out no wire
Which boss was the liar?"
They denied it—each son of a gun!

Now who reads this tale
Each miss or each male,
When you tattle the talk of the town.

Find out if its fake Ere you charges you make,
Tell the truth when you're calling folks down.

—M. H. Conquest.

Great War Veterans'
Memorial Hall Fund

A Tribute to the Fallen and a Thank-offering to the Living.

The Memorial is to be erected in Edmonton in honor of the Northern Alberta Veterans in that Canadian Army which has fought valiantly from the famous Battle of Ypres to the re-capture of Mons, and which Sir Arthur Currie says:
"In the last two years has never lost a gun, has never failed to take an objective, and has never been driven from an inch of ground once consolidated."

THE IDEA

Fifteen months ago the Great War Veterans of Northern Alberta began a movement to build in Edmonton a Memorial Hall to their fallen comrades and at the same time establish in connection with it a Soldiers' Assembly Hall and Administrative Offices for their own organizations.

THE FUND

The money for this enterprise must be raised by public subscription. The plan is to sell Thankoffering Shares at $10.00 each. The amount of the issue is to be $200,000. Stockholders are those who subscribe in amounts of $10.00 and over and to whom will be issued "Thank-offering" Shares. Smaller amounts, too, will be very acceptable.

THE PLAN

There will be provided a recreation hall, billiard and game rooms, gymnasium and swimming pool, library, reading and writing rooms and a cen-tration. An auditorium and stage for public concerts. Administrative offices will also be provided for. These and the auditorium will be a source of revenue toward maintenance.

THE MEMORIAL

The most impressive feature of the scheme will be the Memorial and Trophy Hall, where will be preserved honor rolls, scrolls and the flags and standards of Alberta battalions and the trophies of the battlefield and their prized property. These features will inspire us to keep alive the traditions of our regiments.

THE NEED

The need for such an institution has been apparent since the men began to return in 1915.
For many years to come ex-soldiers from all parts of the province will find it necessary to visit the capital on business connected with some one or other of the offices dealing with returned soldier problems.

Address all Communications to Memorial Hall Headquarters, C.P.R.
Building, Edmonton. Subscribe through any Chartered Bank.

THE SITE

The citizens of Edmonton have given free a magnificent site in the heart of the city overlooking the Saskatchewan River. It is one of the finest in Canada for a Soldiers' Memorial. The property has been vested in a Board of Trustees, representing the G.W.V.A., the city and the province.

THE MOTIVE

We, as a people, must show our gratitude to those who upheld our honor. It will not be enough to commemorate their deeds in marble or bronze. A building well designed will possess all the characteristics of a high work of art and at the same time fill a practical need.

THE SUPPORT

The scheme has been carefully considered, and it is agreed that it is the only one that will meet the needs of the veterans. The Victory Loan organization has volunteered to work in support of the campaign, and the Veterans have associated with them a strong committee of business men.

THE APPEAL

This is the first Christmas since the cessation of the war.
It is the greatest occasion for thanksgiving you have ever had.
It will never come again. Surely the battle-scarred survivors of the campaign in France and Belgium merit this Christmas gift. It is for those who have been "Over There" this appeal is sent forth.

THE SUBSCRIP-TIONS

scriptions must be accompanied

Note and Comment

The month of December, now drawing to a close, has been the mildest one for the past five years, and there has also been an unusual number of hours of sunshine this month. Owners of cars are enjoying the good roads and fine weather and are adding many miles to their year's total.

With barely enough snow to cover the ground the winter feeding of stock has been very light, compared with a year ago.

A few light sleighs are seen on the trails, but the bulk of the traffic is on wheels.

A continuance of the present brand of weather will be entirely welcome.

The Editor was confined to his bed this week. He is in the best of health, but his washer woman got careless and let a cow eat his other shirt last week.

The open season for annual school meetings is with us once more, and now that flu has fled the coop, the schools will get down to work again and drill in the three R's.

The world is now safe for hospitals, orphanages, asylums, old women's homes, and such like, as well as for democracy.

Much loss may be avoided by paying a little more attention to the quality of food that is fed to live stock. To use as food, hay that is 50% coarse and unpalatable weeds is not the best means of keeping stock in good condition, nor is it more wise to feed them poisonous plants.

Most animals have an instinctive knowledge of injurious foods and will push aside and leave suspicious portions of their hay. But this refuse is often chopped up with the fodder in such a manner that they must eat it or starve.

And now for a fresh bunch of New Year resolutions.

The local skating rink is well patronized these days, the combination of good ice and fine weather being very attracting.

Backner's Famous "Dixie Jubilee Singers" will appear in the Big Hall, tomorrow night, Saturday. There will no doubt be a full house to hear this well-known troupe of singers.

The Consort Enterprise has closed shop, for about six weeks, and the paper will not appear again until along in February. Miss DeWolf, the co-editor, has been married, and her brother Wilborn is away in B. C. It is rumored that Wilborn intends following the example of his sister. Here's luck.

Leo Beebe came down from Trochu, on Tuesday, to spend the holidays at home.

Geo. Banks returned from Druneheller on Tuesday.

Geo. Hazen writing from Cosmopolis, Wash., says that there are lots of flowers still in bloom out there, quite a change from the winters up in Alberta. Incidentally, George sends his renewal to the News for another year.

The re-opening of the Creek Valley School and the serving by the teacher of a hot drink during lunch time has proved very satisfactory to both teacher and scholars. Twenty-three was the lowest attendance during the past week.

The Brass Band has again resumed their practices after a rest of six weeks during the flu epidemic.

W. Gehrke and family spent Christmas at Castor.

Hear the Dixie Jubilee Singers Saturday night, (tomorrow.)
